Court cases can be very complicated, and even if you are representing yourself you should see a lawyer for legal advice as to how the law applies to you, and what is best in your particular situation. This might save you time, money, trips to the courthouse and avoid serious mistakes. There are lawyers who will help you help yourself. This means that they will only charge you for giving you the help you need, and you can complete the court papers on your own or ask the lawyer for additional help with your papers.

There are professional mediators in the community who can help you with your problems. They help you solve your present problem, and anticipate future problems and how to solve them. Mediators work with both parties in a dispute to help resolve areas of disagreement or trouble.

A list of individuals, agencies and other resources to help people resolve legal problems is available at the Law Library and Resource Center.

This packet contains court forms and instructions to file an “Agreement to Stop an Income Withholding Order” when all parties are willing to provide their notarized signatures on the Agreement form.

NOTE: The signatures must be notarized or witnessed by the Clerk of the Court.

14. Take the form to the Office of the Attorney General to obtain a signature consenting to the Agreement to Stop or Modify Income Withholding Order.

NOTE: If the Attorney General will not consent, you must use the Petition to Stop or Modify Income Withholding Order forms.

WHAT TO DO NEXT:

1. Make two copies, or three if the Office of the Attorney General is involved.
2. Take the original forms and all copies to the Clerk of the Court, along with the necessary filing fee. (See #A below)
3. The Clerk will file the original Agreement and will “conform” your copies, to show that the original has been filed.
4. The Clerk will take the paperwork to the appropriate Judicial Officer and if signed, will provide copies to you for your records. This step may take several days and is usually not done while you wait.
5. This matter will be completed when you receive your copy of the Order stopping or modifying the Income Withholding Order.

If you have never filed an appearance in this case prior to this time (for example if you have never contested any issue), then you will have to pay an appearance fee. If you have previously paid an appearance fee, there may also be a charge to file the Agreement to Stop or Modify. The Clerk will tell if this fee is required, and you can view the total fee amount on the Court website https://www.cosc.pima.gov/home.asp?include=pages/filing_fees_const.htm.
