General Information & Frequently Asked Questions

This packet contains general information, instructions, and court forms for you to complete and file with the court.

What is a Petition for?

A petition is a written, legal request for a divorce.

What do “Petitioner” and “Respondent” mean?

Because you are the one asking and filing for divorce, you are called the PETITIONER. Your spouse is the RESPONDENT on all your divorce documents.

Are there any requirements for filing for divorce in Arizona?

In order to file for a divorce in Arizona, you or your spouse must have lived in Arizona for at least 90 days before you file. If you are in the military, then you have to have been stationed in Arizona for at least 90 days.

If you have not lived in Arizona for at least 90 days DO NOT FILE. You have to wait until you have lived here at least 90 days.

If the judge needs to decide on matters about children, like parenting time or child support, then Arizona must be your children’s home state (primary place of residence). This means your children must have lived in Arizona for at least 6 months before you file.

If you are not sure if Arizona is the home state (primary place of residence) for your children, talk to a lawyer before filing for divorce.

Arizona is a no-fault divorce state. You only need to show that the marriage is irretrievably broken (meaning there is no reasonable possibility of getting back together).

This symbol is a warning. It can mean a few different things:

- The topic can be confusing and you may need to ask a lawyer for help
- You may need to make sure something is done

Whenever you see this symbol, make sure you read the information carefully and understand it fully.

Should I see a lawyer for help?

Court cases can be very complicated, and even if you are representing yourself you should see a lawyer for legal advice as to how the law applies to you, and what is best in your particular situation. This might save you time, money and trips to court, and help you to avoid serious mistakes.

There are lawyers who will help you. They will only charge you for giving you the help you need, and you can complete the court papers on your own or ask the lawyer for help with your papers. For more information, call the Law Library and Resource Center at (520) 724-8456 and ask how to find an attorney.

Where is the Law Library and Resource Center?

The Law Library and Resource Center is located in Room 256, on the second floor of the Pima County Superior Court (110 West Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona 85701). It is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday (except holidays). For more information, call (520) 724-8456 or email lawlibrary@sc.pima.gov.

What is “Sensitive Data” and why do I need to fill out a separate form?

Sensitive data, or sensitive information, is information that you might not want other people to see. Sensitive data includes your social security number, bank account number, credit card number, and other financial account numbers.

Court documents, for the most part, can be seen by anyone. If you need to include any of the types of information listed above in your Petition, you should write “SEE CONFIDENTIAL SENSITIVE DATA FORM” where you would normally put that information. Then you need to fill out the Confidential Sensitive Data Form, which is included at the end of this packet. This is where you will write the actual sensitive information.

This is important because the “Confidential Sensitive Data Form” will not be seen by the public.

If you ever need to give the court new information, then you should file an updated sensitive data form. Include all other sensitive data forms that you have already given the court, plus any new sensitive information that you need to tell the court.

Anyone who includes “sensitive data” in documents filed with the court, other than on a Confidential Sensitive Data Form, does so at their own risk.

How do I get a Divorce?

There are a few steps you have to take in order to get a divorce.

Step 1. File your divorce papers

To file a Petition for Divorce, use the forms and instructions in this packet. This first set of paperwork is the beginning of the divorce process.

Step 2. Serve the divorce paperwork

A copy of your petition must be officially served on your spouse. This tells your spouse that you are asking for a divorce and gives your spouse an opportunity to file a Response to your petition. This step is very important! There are specific directions for how to officially serve the Petition on your spouse. Forms and instructions are in Packet #10 Service of Papers.

Step 3. Request a default decision OR go forward with a divorce trial

If your spouse does not file a Response to your Petition through the court within the time limits of the Summons (see Packet #10 Service on the Other Party), the divorce can proceed as a Default. A Default means that the court will order everything legally reasonable you asked for in your Petition. Before your divorce can proceed as a Default, you must file an application for Default. Forms and instructions are in Packet #11 Obtaining a Default Decree.

If your spouse filed a Response and you cannot reach an agreement, you will need to have a divorce trial. Forms and instruction are in Packet #14 Trial Preparation. If this is the case, you should seek the advice of a lawyer.

Step 4. Get a final decision

To make your divorce final, you have to fill out a Decree to be signed by the judicial officer. The Decree is the final order from the court granting you the divorce and deciding the other issues related to the divorce. Forms and instructions are in Packet #4 Divorce with Children Decree.

What about my children?

Because your divorce involves minor children, you and your spouse are required to attend the Domestic Relations Education on Children's Issues Course (Parent Education Class). You must complete this class within the first 45 days after your Divorce Petition was served on you.

You are not responsible for your spouse's attendance, but no request regarding Legal Decision-Making or Parenting Time will be granted to a non-attending spouse, and the course must be completed before attending Conciliation Court Mediation. There is a fee for this class. You can register for the course at www.sc.pima.gov/fccc/parented or by calling 520-724-5590.

What if my spouse and I disagree about the children?

If you and your spouse cannot agree on a plan for how each of you will spend time with the children or make legal decisions for them, you will eventually be required to attend Conciliation Court Mediation for help in writing a Parenting Plan for your minor children (See Packet #9 Legal Decision- Making and Parenting Time). You will both meet with a neutral third party to get help in solving your problems. Mediation does not deal with child support (see Packet #8 Child Support), spousal maintenance (alimony), or division of property or debts. You can ask for mediation at any time with Packet #15 Mediation.

Mediation is offered as a free service only through the Conciliation Court.

How much will all this cost?

CURRENT FILING FEES

A list of current filing fees can be found on the Superior Court website here:

https://www.cosc.pima.gov/home.asp?include=pages/filing_fees_const.htm

Additionally, the Law Library and Resource Center, located on the 2nd floor in the Superior Court building, can provide a hard copy of the same list.

NOTE: You have to pay fees to file documents for your divorce. If you can't afford the court fees or other costs for a divorce, you may be able to get a deferral or waiver.

HOW TO GET A DEFERRAL OR WAIVER

You can apply for a full waiver or deferral of the fees if you cannot pay.

- A deferral means that you do not have to pay any fees at the beginning of your case, but you will be expected to pay on a predetermined schedule.
- A waiver means that you do not have to pay the fees at all.
- Not everybody who requests a deferral or waiver receives one.
- You file for a deferral or waiver at the same time you file your petition or response.

For more information see Packet #12 Deferral/Waiver of Fees & Costs

Volunteer Lawyers Program Domestic Relations Clinic

To schedule an appointment, call the Law Library and Resource Center at 520-724-8456, or go in person to the library on the second floor of the Pima County Superior Court for information.

There are lawyers who will help you help yourself

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION FROM THE COURT AGAINST BOTH PETITIONER AND RESPONDENT

WARNING TO PETITIONER AND RESPONDENT: THIS IS AN OFFICIAL ORDER FROM THE COURT. IT AFFECTS YOUR RIGHTS. READ THIS ORDER IMMEDIATELY AND CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND IT, CONTACT AN ATTORNEY FOR LEGAL ADVICE.

A Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) has been filed with the court by your spouse. As a result, this Order is made at the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Arizona, Pima County, under the authority of Arizona Law, A.R.S. § 25-315 (A). This Order has the same force and effect as an Order personally signed by the Judge. You and your spouse are required to follow this Order. It may be enforced by any remedy available under the law, including an order of CONTEMPT OF COURT.

1. ACTIONS BY YOU OR YOUR SPOUSE WHICH ARE FORBIDDEN BY THIS ORDER: From the time this Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) is filed with the court, until a Decree of Divorce is entered, or until further Order of the court, both the PETITIONER AND THE RESPONDENT shall not, by Order of this court, take any of the following forbidden actions:

NOTE: THE LAW REQUIRES THAT THE EXACT LANGUAGE OF A.R.S. § 25-315(A) BE INCLUDED IN THIS ORDER. FURTHER EXPLANATION OF THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS ORDER ARE INCLUDED HERE BEFORE THE ACTUAL STATUTE (LAW). READ THE EXPLANATION, WHICH IS FOLLOWED BY THE STATUTE ITSELF. IF YOU HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD CONTACT AN ATTORNEY FOR LEGAL ADVICE.

- a. RESTRICTIONS ON YOUR JOINT PROPERTY: This Order recognizes that since you and your spouse both may have an interest in property acquired or paid for during the marriage, you may not hide earnings or property from your spouse; you may not take out a loan on any of this property; you may not sell it or give it away to someone else, UNLESS you have the written permission of your spouse or permission in writing from the court. The law does recognize that there may be situations where joint or community property may need to be transferred as part of the everyday running of a business, or that occasionally the sale of community property is necessary to meet necessities of life, such as food, shelter, or clothing or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with this action.

- b. RESTRICTIONS ON YOUR BEHAVIOR: The Order is designed to protect you, your spouse, and your children from actions by your spouse which may be disruptive, or physically or emotionally harmful. While Divorce can be a difficult process, it does not give either spouse the right to either harass or bother the other spouse or the children. The court does not tolerate physical abuse or threats in any form.
- c. RESTRICTIONS ABOUT YOUR CHILDREN: This Order specifically states that you cannot take your common children out of the state of Arizona for any reason, without a written agreement between you and your spouse or a court Order, before the children are taken from the state. This Order is designed to allow both parents continuing access to and contact with the children.
- d. RESTRICTIONS ABOUT INSURANCE: Do not remove or cause to be removed the other party or the children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.

Arizona Law, A.R.S. § 25-315(A) specifically provides as follows:

- 1. The preliminary injunction shall be directed to each party of the action and contain the following orders:
 - a. That both parties are enjoined from transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common or community property of the parties except if related to the usual course of business, the necessities of life, or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with an action filed under this article, without the written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
 - b. That both parties are enjoined from molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace of or committing an assault or battery on the person of the other party or any natural or adopted child of the parties.
 - c. That both parties are enjoined from removing any natural or adopted child of the parties then residing in Arizona from the jurisdiction of the court without the prior written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.

INFORMATION ABOUT PROPERTY AND DEBTS:

Sections 10 through 15 tell the court about your property and debts and how you think they should be divided.

Community property is any property you and your spouse bought or earned during your marriage. It doesn't matter who uses the property or who actually paid the money. Both you and your spouse have a right to about an equal share of community property. Community debts belong to both spouses. It doesn't matter who spent the money or whose name is on the debt as long as it was created during the marriage. Community debts should also be divided in half.

Separate property is property that either spouse owned before the marriage or received during the marriage by gift or inheritance. Separate property is not divided during the divorce.

Separate debts are debts that either spouse had before the marriage or that happened after the divorce petition was served.

If you have questions, or you have a lot of community property and/or debts, you should consult a lawyer before you file your Petition.

10. COMMUNITY PROPERTY (Property Acquired During The Marriage)

This tells the court if you and your spouse have any community property.

- If you DO NOT have any community property, mark the first box and go to #12 Separate Property.
- If you DO have community property, mark the second box.

11. DESCRIPTION AND VALUE OF THE PROPERTY

Now you need to tell the court what property should go to you and what property should go to your spouse. The court will try to give both spouses about the same amount, unless there are good reasons not to divide it equally. Think carefully about what you think would be a fair division.

- If you already split the property before the divorce was filed, check “Property in each party’s possession” and check both Petitioner (you) and Respondent (your spouse). You may want to list property of anyway so that the order dividing the property is clear.
 - If you don’t list the property, you can move to #12 Separate Property (Property Acquired Before the Marriage).
- If you did not already split the property, list the specific items of property, about how much they are worth, and who should get them—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse). Be as clear and detailed as possible. You can use the brand name and model.

Real Estate (property or home)

- Write the complete address of the property. Include the legal description of the property, such as “LOT 77, PINE TREE ACRES, according to Book 111 of Maps, etc.” You can find this information on your deed papers.
- Check who should receive it—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse). You can ask the court to order it to be sold, with the profit divided between spouses.
 - Cemetery plots are considered real estate.
 - Mobile homes are considered real estate IF you own the land where the mobile home is sitting and the mobile home is permanently attached on that land. If not, a mobile home is a vehicle.

Household furniture and appliances

This includes sofas, beds, tables, refrigerators, etc.

- Be as clear and detailed as possible and check who should receive it—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).

Household furnishings

This generally includes things in the house that are not furniture, such as dishes, small appliances, rugs, etc.

- Be as clear and detailed as possible and check who should receive it—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).

Other (explain)

- List any items that have not already been included. Be as clear and detailed as possible and check who should receive it—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).

Pension/Retirement Fund/IRA/Profit Sharing/Stock Plan/401K

You and your spouse each usually have a right to a share of any spouse's plan. How much depends on how long you were married and how long the pension or retirement plan was in effect. If you have been together the whole period of the plan, you could receive up to half of the plan.

- Mark this box if you want the court to divide either your or your spouse's retirement or profit sharing/retirement/401K plan and check who should receive what—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).
 - If you mark this box, you should see an attorney about a document called a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or QDRO. This form is very complicated and difficult to file on your own. It almost always requires the help of a lawyer.
 - If you are not sure whether you or your spouse has a retirement plan, consult a lawyer.

Motor vehicles

- List the vehicle identification number, the year and make of the car (Ford, Chevrolet) and the model (Mustang, Camaro), etc.
- List any lien holders who are on the title to the vehicle. A lien holder is usually the finance company who loaned you the money to buy the vehicle.
- Remember, mobile homes NOT permanently attached to land that you own are considered vehicles.

- Check who should receive the motor vehicle(s)—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).

12. SEPARATE PROPERTY (Property Acquired Before the Marriage)

- If you and your spouse did not bring any property into the marriage and did not receive any gifts or inheritances during the marriage, mark the first box and go to #13 Community Debts (Debts Incurred During the Marriage).
- If you and your spouse have property that either of you brought into the marriage, or if you or your spouse received any gifts or inheritances during the marriage, mark the second box, and list each item and who should get each item—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse).

13. COMMUNITY DEBTS (Debts Created During the Marriage)

- If you and your spouse did not acquire any debts during the marriage, mark the first box and go to #14 Separate Debts (Debts From Before the Marriage).
- If you did acquire some debts during your marriage, mark the second box.
 - Tell the court what the debts are and who should pay them—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse). Be sure to enter enough information to be clear about each specific debt.
- The court will require a fair split of the debts.
- If you get the property that money is owed on, you probably will also receive the debt.
- It is unusual for the court to order one person to pay all the debts.
- Think carefully about what is a fair split.

Keep in mind that the Divorce Decree will order the debts to be split, but this order is NOT binding on the creditors. For example, if a community debt for a specific credit card was awarded to your spouse, and the spouse does not pay the debt, the creditor can still come after you for payment. You would then have to take your spouse back to court to enforce the decree. For more information, please see the Creditor Notification Form which is included in this packet.

14. SEPARATE DEBTS (Debts From Before the Marriage)

- If neither you nor your spouse has separate debts from before you were married (or any debts incurred while you have been separated), mark the first box and go on to #15 Tax Returns.
- If you do have separate debts, mark the second box, list the debts and check who should pay them—the Petitioner (you) or Respondent (your spouse). Be as clear and detailed as possible.

15. TAX RETURNS

- Mark the first box if this is how you want to handle income tax returns.
- Check the “Other” box, if you want a different arrangement. Describe the tax arrangement you want the court to order.

16. SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE (Alimony)

- Spousal maintenance, which used to be known as alimony, is money one spouse pays to the other to provide necessary support.
- Spousal maintenance is paid separate from child support and is NOT a substitute for or supplement to child support.
- The Spousal Maintenance Guidelines apply to all divorce cases filed after September 24, 2022. A calculator is now used to calculate the amount of spousal maintenance owed and the amount of time spousal maintenance should be paid under the Guidelines. The Spousal Maintenance Calculator is available here: <https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>
- PLEASE NOTE: you are required to file a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet if you request spousal maintenance in a default case.
 - Use the Spousal Maintenance Calculator to print a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet.
 - The Spousal Maintenance Worksheet can be filed at any time before a default Decree is entered. You can file the Worksheet with your Petition, submit it with your default Decree, or file it at any time in between. But the Worksheet must be filed before a default Decree can be signed by the judge.

17. OTHER STATEMENTS MADE TO THE COURT UNDER OATH

Each of these statements must be true at the time you file for divorce. If any of these statements are NOT true, you cannot file for divorce until they are true.

One of the spouses must believe that the marriage is “irretrievably broken,” which means that there is no way the marriage can be fixed and that there is no way you will get back together. If you believe your marriage is not irretrievably broken, please see Packet #16 Conciliation to request free marriage counseling through the Conciliation Court.

Check any of the statements that you believe are true.

REQUESTS I MAKE TO THE COURT:

In this section, you are telling the court what you want ordered in the final decree.

1. DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE)

This is your request to end your marriage by a Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce).

2. LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AND PARENTING TIME

Order Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time with Packet #9 Parenting Plan.

- You must attach a copy of your proposed Parenting Plan to this Petition. For more information about the Parenting Plan, please refer to Packet #9 Parenting Plan and the Pima County Superior Court website, www.sc.pima.gov.

3. CHILD SUPPORT

- Mark the boxes to indicate who will pay child support.
- The amount of the support is generally based on the income of the parents and the amount of parenting time that each parent has. It is calculated according to the Arizona Child Support Guidelines.
- The amount of child support does not have to be determined now, but it will need to be decided later so that it can be included in the Decree.
- More information about Child Support can be found in Packet #1 General Information and Packet #8 Child Support.

4. INSURANCE AND HEALTH CARE EXPENSES FOR CHILDREN

- Mark the box that shows which parent should provide insurance for the children.
- The parent who has the most affordable plan should generally provide the insurance.
- Child Support may change depending on the cost of insurance for the children.

5. TAX EXEMPTION

Unless you and your spouse come to another agreement, the tax exemption should be divided between the two of you according to the percentages of your incomes. For example, if you both make the same wage, and have two children, each would get one exemption. If you only have one child, each would get the exemption every other year. If you make twice the amount your spouse makes, then you would receive the exemption two times out of three. More details can be found in Packet #8 Child Support.

6. SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE (ALIMONY)

- If neither party is requesting spousal maintenance, mark the first box and go to #7 Community Property.
- If you are asking the court to order one spouse to pay spousal maintenance to the other spouse, then check which party should pay spousal maintenance to the other and then complete sections a, b, and c regarding the (a) amount of spousal maintenance to be paid, (b) how long spousal maintenance will be paid, and (c) the required spousal maintenance worksheet.

7. COMMUNITY PROPERTY

This asks the court to order the division of property that you requested in this Petition.

8. COMMUNITY DEBTS

This asks the court to order the division of debt that you requested in this Petition.

If you or your spouse has acquired additional debts since you separated, and you want those debts to be considered separate and not community debts, write in the date of separation. Otherwise, the court will use the date of service of the Petition to determine the date community debt ended.

9. SEPARATE PROPERTY

This asks the court to order you and your spouse to keep the separate property you each owned before you were married, or that you each received during the marriage by gift or inheritance, as described in this Petition.

10. SEPARATE DEBTS

This asks the court to order you and your spouse to each be responsible for debts that each of you had from before the marriage, as described in this Petition.

11. NAMES

If you want to be legally known by a maiden or former name, mark the correct box.

- Write in the new last name on the space provided.
- You may not require your spouse to be known by another name without your spouse's consent.

12. OTHER ORDERS THAT I AM REQUESTING

This is where you ask the court anything else you want ordered in your Divorce that has not been covered already in your Petition.

- If you are not asking for any other orders, write "None."

OATH AND VERIFICATION OF PETITIONER:

Sign this form in front of a notary. By doing so you are telling the court that everything in the Petition for Dissolution is true. Generally, you should sign all papers that you are filing at the Superior Court Clerk's Office. The Clerk will notarize the papers.

Now you need to read the Notice of Right to Convert Health Insurance, the Creditor Notification Form and the Order to Complete Parent Education.

Also, if applicable, fill out the Order and Request for a Protected Address located at the end of this packet.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE
WHEN A PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE) IS FILED
(A.R.S. §20-1377 AND §20-1408)

Petitioner: _____

Case #: _____

Respondent: _____

WARNING: THIS IS AN IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTICE. YOUR RIGHTS TO HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE COULD BE AFFECTED AFTER YOUR DIVORCE IS FINAL. READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND THIS NOTICE, YOU SHOULD CALL AN ATTORNEY FOR ADVICE ABOUT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IF YOU ARE ON YOUR SPOUSE’S INSURANCE PLAN: When a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (papers for a divorce decree) is filed, you and/or your children may continue to be covered under your spouse’s health insurance policy. Arizona law allows the dependent spouse and/or children to continue to be covered, but you must take some steps to protect your rights.

WHAT INSURANCE COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOU, AND HOW TO GET IT: If you are covered by your spouse’s health insurance, and you want to continue to be covered after the divorce is final, you must contact the insurance company as soon as possible, and you must start to pay the monthly insurance premium within 31 days of the date the insurance would otherwise stop.

If you decide you want to be covered, the insurer can choose whether to continue coverage under the current policy, or to change the policy to your name. If the policy is changed to your name, it is called a “converted” policy. If the policy is converted by the insurer, the insurer must provide the same or the most similar level of coverage available, unless you ask for a lower level of coverage.

WHAT COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOUR CHILDREN: If you choose to continue coverage as a dependent spouse, you can also choose to continue coverage for your dependent children if you are responsible for their care or support.

PREEXISTING CONDITIONS OR EXCLUSIONS FROM INSURANCE COVERAGE: Whether the insurance is continued or converted, the insurance must be provided to you without proof of insurability and without exclusions for coverage other than what was previously excluded before the insurance was continued or converted.

LIMITS ON RIGHTS TO INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN: You may not be entitled to continued or converted coverage if you are eligible for Medicare or for coverage by other similar types of insurance which together with the continued coverage would make you over-insured. However, dependent children of a person who is eligible for Medicare may be covered by a continuance or a conversion. If you have questions about coverage, check with the insurer and/or the spouse’s employer.

OTHER OPTIONS FOR COVERAGE: Divorce is considered to be a life changing event that, under the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”), may qualify you and/or your dependents with the right to continue health coverage under the spouse’s group plan, if the employer has 20 or more employees. To find out more about your COBRA rights, you can visit the United States Department of Labor (“USDOL”) website at <https://www.dol.gov/> and search for COBRA, or you can call the USDOL at 1-866-487-2365. Divorce is also a life-changing event under the federal Affordable Care Act, which qualifies you and/or your dependents for a special enrollment period to obtain an individual health insurance policy regardless of any health conditions. Additional information is available at <https://www.healthcare.gov/> or by calling 1-800-318-2596.

WARNING TO THE SPOUSE FILING THE PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE): This Notice must be served on your spouse together with the Petition for Dissolution, the Summons, and the Preliminary Injunction.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In your property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution or legal separation, the court may assign responsibility for certain community debts to one spouse or the other. Please be aware that a court order that does this is binding on the spouses only and does not necessarily relieve either of you from your responsibility for these community debts. These debts are matters of a contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card issuers, finance companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers).

Since your creditors are not parties to this court case, they are not bound by court orders or any agreements you and your spouse reach in this case. On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of debts that the court orders the spouse to pay.

You may want to contact your creditors to discuss your debts as well as the possible effects of your court case on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you. Within thirty days after receipt of a request from a spouse who is party to a dissolution of marriage or legal separation action, which includes the court and case number of the action, creditors are required by law to provide information as to the balance and account status of any debts for which the requesting spouse may be liable to the creditor. You may wish to use the following form, or one that is similar to contact your creditors.

REQUEST FOR ACCOUNT INFORMATION FROM CREDITORS
