

Pima County Superior Court Courthouse Gallery January 18, 2008

The visit by artists from Sabino High School began in the courtroom of Judge Gus Aragon.

The Sabino High art students are welcomed to the Courthouse Gallery by its founder Judge Leslie Miller.

Associate Clerk of the Superior Court Don Shaw comments about the artwork hanging in the gallery.

Art teacher Patrick Connell talks about the artwork prepared by his students for this show.

Art student Lauren Sankey talks about her motivation for the painting hanging in the upper left of the picture above.

Art student Brianna Fugere talks about her inspiration for the artwork she has on display in the Courthouse Gallery.