

9. THE PARTIES WILL FILE THEIR FEDERAL AND STATE INCOME TAX RETURNS AS FOLLOWS:

After the judicial officer signs the Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce), the parties have paid or will pay federal and state taxes as follows: For the years they were married but not including the year the Decree was signed, the parties have already filed or will file joint federal and state income tax returns. For these previous years, the parties will also pay and hold the other harmless from 1/2 of all additional income taxes, if any, and all other costs, and share equally in refunds. For the calendar year that the Decree was signed, and for all future years, each party will file separate federal and state income tax returns and each will give the other party all necessary documentation to do so.
