What is a Petition?

A petition is a written, legal request to modify your Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time Order.

What do “Petitioner” and “Respondent” mean?

On all documents filed with the court beginning with the first document, if you were initially the Respondent, then you will always be the Respondent. Or, if you were initially the Petitioner, then you will always be the Petitioner

While the process may seem overwhelming and intimidating, please know that this packet is written with your needs in mind, and is intended to make this process as easy for you as possible. Making use of the Clinic is in your best interest. The judicial officer will not sign any documents that are incorrect or incomplete. In such cases, you will have to leave, correct your documents, and then schedule another hearing.

For information regarding an appointment, call the Pima County Law Library at 520-724-8456, or go in person to the library located on the second floor of the Pima County Superior Court.

Are you the victim of domestic violence?

Important! Read this first...

Unfortunately, domestic violence may occur in any relationship, and may be directed against you personally or against your children.

You are a domestic violence victim if you or your children have experienced:

- Physical acts such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking
- Threats of physical violence by phone or in person
- Abusive words and/or behavior used to control you or put you in any kind of danger
- Being followed around throughout the day or having your interactions with others monitored
- Being forbidden to leave your house, or being taken against your will and kept at any other location
- Having someone enter the house against your will, behave in a disorderly manner, and/or damage property
- Conduct that involves disobeying court orders, including interfering with your parenting time

- You DO NOT need to have been seen at a hospital or at a doctor's office.
- The other person DOES NOT need to have been convicted of domestic violence or assault.

You can get an IMMEDIATE Order of Protection to keep him or her away from you and your children by obtaining a Petition for Order of Protection from the Clerk of the Court on the first floor of the Pima County Superior Court, Room 131A. 5. 90 Day Waiting Period

If the pre-deployment parenting plan designated the military parent as the parent with whom the child lived the majority of the time, this plan will not be modified until the military parent has been back from deployment at least 90 days. The expectation is that once the deployment is over, the former plan will be reinstated and the child will return to the military parent's home as agreed to in the plan existing before the deployment. This waiting period only applies if the deployed parent does not agree to the changes.

6. Change in Circumstances

A request to change either legal decision-making or parenting time can be based on a substantial and unanticipated change in circumstances. A military parent's absence caused by a deployment does not qualify as an unanticipated change and cannot be the sole basis for a proposed change to an existing parenting plan.

7. Electronic Testimony

A military parent will be allowed to participate in a hearing about parenting time or parent-child contact by telephone or teleconference if the parent is unable to attend because of a deployment. All that is required is advance notice to the court and deployment orders showing why the parent will be unable to attend in person.

How do I use this packet?

This packet has instructions for modifying existing court orders for legal decision-making and parenting time. You may choose to modify only parenting time or only legal decision-making, or you may modify both.

If you want to modify only legal decision-making or both legal decision-making and parenting time, follow the instructions and complete the forms found on pages 12-25 of this packet.

If you want to modify only parenting time, you can skip the legal decision-making instructions and forms. Instead follow the instructions and complete the forms found on pages 24-28 of this packet.

What decisions will the Judge make based on the papers I file?

1. The Judge may decide that making changes to the current parenting arrangement and legal decision - making is not necessary based on the paperwork filed. If the Judge denies your request, there will be no hearing.
2. The Judge may decide that changes are needed based on the paperwork filed. If the Judge grants the request, the court will set a hearing in order to set a trial date. Mediation will also be ordered, if appropriate.

The judge will notify you of the decision by mail.

Additional Resources Available to You

Trying to change your Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time Order can be confusing and scary. If you feel you need help with parts of the modification process, you can consult a “limited-scope attorney” who will only charge for giving the help you need. The Self-Service Center and the Domestic Relations Clinic will help you review your documents if you prefer to complete them on your own. Steps in the Process for Modification of Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time

Step 1. File the following documents with the court using the instructions and forms in this packet:

- Verified Petition for Modification of Legal Decision-Making And Parenting Time
- Affidavit in Support of Petition for Modification of Legal Decision- Making And Parenting Time
- Affidavit re: Minor Children
- Notice of Filing Petition For Modification Of Legal Decision-Making And Parenting Time

Step 2. Serve the other parent

A copy of your Petition and the other required documents (in Step 1) must be “served” on the other parent. This tells the other parent that you are asking for a change in the current Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time Order. There are very specific instructions for how to serve the other parent. Forms and instructions are in Packet #10, Service of Papers.

Step 3. Wait for a response from the other parent

Once the forms have been filed with the court and have been served on the other parent, you must wait 20 days. This waiting period gives the other parent the opportunity to respond to the changes you have requested in the Petition. You must wait 30 days if the other parent lives outside of Arizona.

Step 4. Request an Order Granting or Denying the Hearing

If the other parent does or does not respond to the Petition you served after the 20 days have passed (or 30 days outside of Arizona), your next step will be the same, which is to file a Request for Order Granting or Denying a Hearing. (Located in this packet).

Step 5. Wait for judge's decision

The Judge will decide from the paperwork that you filed whether there should be a hearing to make changes to your current Legal Decision-Making and Parenting Time Order. For more information on Parenting Plans, see packet # 9, Parenting Plan.

Step 6. If granted a hearing, schedule and attend mediation prior to the hearing date.

As mentioned above, mediators work with both parties in a dispute to help resolve the areas of disagreement or trouble. Free mediation services are available through the Conciliation Court. You and the other parent are not required to reach an agreement, but you are required to attend the mediation before the hearing. For more information, see Packet #15, Mediation.

(Instructions on pages 24 and 25 are for Requesting a Protected Address and Order for Protected Address. If these instructions do not apply to you. Please proceed to page 26.)
