Court cases can be very complicated, and even if you are representing yourself you should see a lawyer for legal advice as to how the law applies to you, and what is best in your particular situation. This might save you time, money, trips to the courthouse and avoid serious mistakes. There are lawyers who will help you help yourself. This means that they will only charge you for giving you the help you need, and you can complete the court papers on your own or ask the lawyer for additional help with your papers.

There are professional mediators in the community who can help you with your problems. They help you solve your present problem, and anticipate future problems and how to solve them. Mediators work with both parties in a dispute to help resolve areas of disagreement or trouble.

A list of individuals, agencies and other resources to help people resolve legal problems is available at the Self-Service Center.

PETITION TO STOP OR MODIFY ORDER OF ASSIGNMENT FORM INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

WHEN TO USE THIS FORM:

You should use this form if any of the following applies to all of your children:

- ✓ age 18 and have graduated from high school or are no longer attending high school
- ✓ age 19
- ✓ have married, been adopted or joined the military
- ✓ are deceased
- ✓ custody has been changed by Court order and you are no longer obligated to pay support
- ✓ it is time to stop making arrears payments because child support arrears are paid in full
- ✓ you and the other party have remarried
- ✓ your case has been dismissed
- ✓ your obligation to pay spousal maintenance has ended or has changed and the other parent will not sign an agreement to stop the Child Support Order.

WHEN NOT TO USE THIS FORM:

- ✓ you need to modify child support because one child is age 18 and graduated high school but there other minor children still entitled to support
- ✓ a child has started physically residing with you but there is no Court Order which changes the custody and/or parenting time orders
- ✓ you wish to terminate or modify your obligation to pay spousal maintenance before it is due to stop
- ✓ the other parent/former spouse will agree to stop the Order of Assignment

NOTE: There are other forms to use for these matters.

HOW TO FILL OUT THIS FORM:

1. Fill in your name, address and telephone number in the top area where indicated on the Petition to Stop or Modify. Do not fill in this area on the Request for Hearing.
2. Fill in the name of the Petitioner and Respondent as it appears on the very first document.
3. Fill in the case number.
4. Check the box, which indicates if the case is Non-IV-D or IV-D.
Don't know? If you or the other parent have ever used the services of the Department of Child Support Enforcement or the State of Arizona Attorney General's Office, your case may be a "IV-D" case. If your case is a IV-D case, you may be required to give the Attorney General's Office notice of your request to stop or modify the Order of Assignment. The Child Support Division of the Clerk of the Court can tell you if your case is a IV-D case.
5. Fill in the Assigned To section with the name of the Judicial Officer assigned to your case.
6. In paragraph 1, check the boxes, which apply.
7. In paragraph 2, fill in the date of the most recent Order of Assignment and the amount of the child support and/or spousal maintenance, which was ordered.
8. In paragraph 3, fill in the name and address of your current employer.
9. In paragraph 4, check all boxes, which apply.
10. In paragraph 5, check the box, which applies.
11. In paragraph 6, check the request to appear by telephone conference call only if you no longer live in Pima County. If you live in Pima County, you must personally appear at any hearing, which is scheduled.
12. In paragraph 7, check the box if you believe that all Court ordered payments have been paid and further payments would result in an overpayment. Note: Checking this box will not automatically result in stopping the Order of Assignment. A Judicial Officer will decide if it is appropriate to hold payments until a hearing his held, or a further Order is entered.
13. Sign and date the form where indicated.

WHAT TO DO NEXT:

1. Make two copies, or three if the Office of the Attorney General must receive a copy.
2. Take the original forms and all copies to the Clerk of the Court, along with the necessary filing fee. (See #A below)
3. The Clerk will file the original Petition and will “conform” your copies, to show that the original has been filed. The Clerk will return two copies to you: one for your records and one to serve on the other party. If the Office of the Attorney General must receive a copy, you will receive three copies.
4. A copy of the Petition to Stop or Modify and a copy of the Request for Hearing must be served on the other party. (See #B below)
5. When you have served the other party, you must file a proof of service with the Clerk of the Court. (See #C below)
6. After the other party’s time to file a Response has passed, and if no Request for Hearing has been filed, take the Order to the Clerk of the Court. The Clerk will process the Petition to Stop or Modify to the appropriate Judicial Officer and your Petition will be reviewed and granted if appropriate, or the matter may be set for hearing before a Judicial Officer.
  - A. If you have never filed an appearance in this case prior to this time, for example if you have never contested any issue, you will have to pay an appearance fee of $166.00--$171.00. If you have previously paid an appearance fee, the cost to file the Petition to Stop or Modify is $61.00. You may request that the filing fees be deferred or waived. The Clerk of the Court will provide you with the forms to request that your fees be deferred or waived.
  - B. YOU are responsible for proper service of the Petition on the other party, even if the fees for service were waived/deferred. The Court does not arrange for service of process. It is not good service if you personally hand the papers to the other party. The Law Library has a service packet available online for free or you can purchase in Law Library for $2.00 (cash only). If the other party was represented by the Arizona Attorney General’s office, the Attorney General cannot receive papers for that person. Your papers may be served as follows:
    - [1]. If your fees were waived/deferred: Take the papers to the Pima County Sheriff’s Office Civil Division Office at 32 N. Stone Ave., Tucson, AZ 16th Floor. Call 351-6000 for more information.
    - [2]. Private process server. The names of local process server companies are listed in the Yellow Pages under Process Servers.
    - [3]. United States Mail, Return Receipt Requested. The other party must personally sign the green card, and you must file the green card with the Clerk of the Court, along with an Affidavit of Service. (See #C below)
    - [4]. National Courier Service which requires a signature showing that the documents have been received, and you must file the proof of receipt with the Clerk of the Court, along with an Affidavit of Service. (See #C below)
    - [5]. Acceptance of Service. The other party may sign and date an Acceptance of Service or Waiver of Service form. This form must be signed before a Notary Public or the Clerk of the Court and filed with the Clerk of the Court. The Acceptance of Service Form is available in the Self-Help Center located in the Pima County Law Library located on the second floor of the Courthouse.
    - [6]. The Office of the Attorney General may be served by registered mail.

Other methods of service may also be allowed, pursuant to Rule 40 (C), Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.

If you do not understand these requirements,
you should contact an attorney for advice.
The Clerk of the Court personnel are not allowed to give legal advice.

- C. After the other party has been served, you must file proof of service with the Clerk of the Court. If you use a Process Server or the Sheriff’s Department, they will provide an Affidavit of Service for you to file with the Court. The Affidavit of Service Form is available in the Self-Help Center located in the Pima County Law Library located on the second floor of the Courthouse.
