

PETITION TO ESTABLISH CHILD SUPPORT

Read this before you complete any forms in your packet.

Sensitive data, or sensitive information, is information that you might not want other people to see. Sensitive data includes your social security number, bank account number, credit card number, and other financial account numbers.

Court documents, for the most part, can be seen by anyone. If you need to include any of types of information listed above, you should write “SEE CONFIDENTIAL SENSITIVE DATA FORM” on the document. Then you need to fill out the Confidential Sensitive Data Form. This is where you will include the actual sensitive information.

This is important because the “Confidential Sensitive Data Form” will not be seen by the public.

If you ever need to give the court new information, then you should file an updated sensitive data form. Include all other sensitive data forms that you have already given the court, plus any new sensitive information that you need to tell the court.

If you include “sensitive data” in documents filed with the court, other than on a Confidential Sensitive Data Form, you do so at your own risk.

See Instructions on Completing the Sensitive Data Form near the end of this packet.

These forms must not be used to engage in the unauthorized practice of law. The court is not responsible for (1) actions taken by the users of these forms or (2) the users' reliance upon the instructions or information provided.

GENERAL INFORMATION & Frequently Asked Questions

This packet contains general information, instructions, and court forms for you to complete and file with the court.

What is a Petition to Establish Child Support?

A petition is a written, legal request for the Court to order child support.

What do “Petitioner” and “Respondent” mean?

Because you are asking and filing to establish child support, you are called the PETITIONER. The other parent is the RESPONDENT on all your paternity documents.

Why would I need to file this Petition to Establish Child Support?

You Should file a Petition to Establish Child Support if:

- your child(ren) were born or conceived during the marriage or paternity has been established; and
- you are providing support for or have residential care of the child(ren) of the other party; and
- you wish to establish a support obligation for the natural or adoptive parent of the child(ren) in your care; and
- you know the name and address of the other party, or where the person can be found.

What is Child Support?

Child Support is a monthly amount that the court orders one parent to pay to the other parent in order to help with the costs of supporting their child. The amount of child support is based on many factors. These factors include how much money each parent earns, the typical cost of raising a child, how much parenting time each parent has, who pays for medical insurance and childcare and how much, as well as several other factors.

As long as you know the information, or can estimate the information, the online Child Support Calculator will do the math for you.

Determining who should pay child support and how much is complicated, but a careful reading of these instructions will help guide you through the process.

This symbol is a warning. It can mean a few different things:

- The topic can be confusing and you may need to ask a lawyer for help
- You need to make sure that something is done

Whenever you see this symbol, make sure you read the information carefully and completely understand it.

Child Support Guidelines: These guidelines establish a standard across the state of Arizona. The Guidelines provide for child support which reflects children's reasonable needs and parents' ability to pay. Under the guidelines, the court must calculate child support for each case involving minor children. The court will ask for your relevant information even if both parents have agreed not to pay child support. This assures that the arrangement serves the children's best interests.

To see the full Guidelines for yourself, visit:

<http://www.azcourts.gov/Portals/31/Child%20Support/2015CSGuidelinesRED.pdf>

Who can file a Petition to Establish Child Support?

Either the Petitioner or the Respondent as part of a Dissolution (Divorce), or a Paternity case, or as a separate Petition to Establish Child Support can use this packet to have child support established.

Do I need a lawyer's help?

Legal problems often seem complex and difficult to understand on your own. You may want to seek the advice of a lawyer. There are lawyers who will help you help yourself. This means that they will only charge you for giving you the help that you need: you may complete the court forms on your own or ask a lawyer for help.

For more information, call the Pima County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service at (520) 623-4625 or visit <http://www.pimacountybar.org/lawyer-referral-service-lrs>

How do I file a Petition to Establish Child Support?

Step 1: Follow the instructions in this packet to fill out the necessary forms.

Step 2: Make 2 copies of: (so you will have originals and 2 copies)

- Petition to Establish Child Support
- Order to Appear
- Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount
- Child Support Order

Step 3: File the papers with the court. Take all of the copies to the Clerk of the Court, located on the first floor of the Superior Court Building [110 West Congress, Tucson, AZ 85701. Open 8 am to 5 pm, Monday through Friday, except legal holidays]. Arrive at the court at least an hour before it closes.

The clerk will take your original forms and one set of copies and will stamp your originals.

What if I can't afford the filing fee?

You have to pay fees to file the Petition to Establish Child Support. If you can't afford the court fees, you may be able to get a deferral or waiver. You must request this BEFORE you file the petition.

For more information about deferrals and waivers, see Packet # 12, Deferral – Waiver of Fees & Costs.

What do I do now?

After you file your original forms, a judge will review your forms, schedule a hearing, and issue an Order to Appear. The hearing will be scheduled for the earliest available date, which may be in 4 to 6 weeks. Approximately 10 days after you file, if a judge has signed your Order to Appear Re: Petition to Establish, you can pick up the forms at Superior Court. You will receive two copies of the Order to Appear: one for your records and one to serve on the other parent.

Do I need to let the other party know I filed a Petition?

Yes! You are responsible for making sure the other parent receives copies of all the paperwork you file. This is called “service” and helps assure that the other party knows what is going on with the case. The court usually requires that you serve the other party at least 10 days before a scheduled hearing. For more information, see Packet # 10, Service on the Other Party.

For proper service include:

- 1 copy of the Petition to Establish Child Support
- 1 copy of the Order to Appear
- 1 copy of the Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount
- 1 copy of the Child Support Order

What should I expect at my hearing?

At the hearing you and the other parent will tell the court about the case and why a child support order is necessary. Be prepared to give testimony and present evidence (documents, photos, etc.) about why the court should order what you requested in your Petition to Establish Child Support. If you believe witnesses are necessary, they must attend the hearing in order to give testimony.

The court cannot read letters or “affidavits” from people who are not in court.

A "Checklist of Required Documents" you must bring to the hearing is found at the end of this Packet.

After the hearing the judge will make a decision—either right then from the bench and tell you about it or by sending you a written decision later.

Other things to know:

- Dress neatly and appropriately. Do not wear shorts, halter tops, “suggestive” clothing, or hats to court.
- DO NOT bring children to court.
- If you need an accommodation due to a disability or an interpreter for any language other than spoken English, you must request it more than 5 days before a hearing
- Allow time for parking and bring money for parking fees.
- Court hearings CANNOT be continued or rescheduled with a phone call. If you cannot attend your scheduled court date, you must file a written request to change the hearing. This request is called a Motion to Continue and is available online and in the self-service center.
- The order of the parties DO NOT CHANGE from what they were in the original decrees. Even if you are filing the Petition to Establish, if you were the Respondent for the divorce or paternity case, you are still the Respondent now.

General Instructions for Completing this Packet

You may type or write on the forms, but you must use black ink.

How do I ask for Child Support?

- If you do not have internet access or a printer, visit the Self-Service Center located in the Law Library, 2nd Floor, Arizona Superior Court in Pima County, 110 W. Congress, Tucson, AZ.

Are there free Child Support Services I can request?

Yes. The Arizona DES Division of Child Support Services can help you with your child support case. This service is either free, or available for a small cost of $25.00 each year, depending upon how much child support you will receive. The fee is assigned for matters where a parent receives $500.00 or more in child support. Please note: the $25.00 annual fee is for each case.

The child support services available include:

- In the drop-down menu, click to select the parenting time schedule that most closely resembles your parenting plan:

Children's Names

- Beginning with the oldest child, type each child's:
 - First Name
 - Middle Initial (MI)
 - Last Name
 - Date of Birth, two digits for month / two digits for day / four digits for year, for example, 02/14/2015

The children's ages will automatically be calculated and shown on the lines.

Presumptive Termination Date:

This is the date when child support payments will end. The date shown is automatically calculated and as the last day of the month that the youngest child turns 18 years old.

Actual Termination Date:

If the youngest child will still be in high school when he or she turns 18 years old, Arizona Child Support Guidelines require child support payments to continue until the child graduates high school or turns 19 years old (whichever comes first). If this is your situation, the Actual Termination Date will be the last day of the month that the child graduates high school or turns 19 years old, whichever comes first.

Example A: If the child's 18th birthday is February 17, 2025 and she will graduate on May 25, 2025, the Actual Termination Date is May 31, 2025 (the end of the graduation month).

Example B: If the child turned 19 years old on February 17, 2025 and will not graduate until May 25, 2025, the Actual Termination Date is February 28, 2025 (the end of the 19th birthday month).

If the Actual Termination Date and Presumptive Termination Date are not the same:

- Type the Actual Termination Date, two digits for month/ two digits for day/ four digits for year, for example-05/31/2025. Remember the date will be either the last day of the youngest child's birthday month when the child turns 19, or the last day of the month the youngest child graduates, whichever comes first.

Youngest Child's Grade Estimated:

The youngest child's grade will automatically be calculated and shown on the line based on the dates of birth you previously entered. The child is considered to be entering the next grade on June 1 of each year.

Actual Grade:

If the youngest child's actual grade is different from the estimated grade, type the Actual Grade.

Number of Minor Children & Children Age 12 or Over:

Based on the information you previously entered, these numbers will be calculated and shown for you.

ENTER FINANCIAL DETAILS

Income:

- In the first column, type Father's gross hourly, monthly, or yearly income (before deductions)

The term "gross income" DOES NOT have the same meaning here as it does when used for tax purposes. Here, you need to enter the amount each person is paid before anything is subtracted. For example, if the Father makes minimum wage, the amount to enter would be $8.05 per hour.

- Below that, click the small black down arrow to the right of "hr" to select whether the gross income you entered above is
 - Hourly (hr)
 - Monthly (mn)

- Yearly (yr)
- In the second column, type Mother's gross hourly (hr), monthly (mn), or yearly (yr) income (before deductions)
- Below that, click the small black down arrow to the right of "hr" to select whether the gross income you entered above is
 - Hourly (hr)
 - Monthly (mn)
 - Yearly (yr)

NOTE: There is no option for gross income received every two weeks. "Every two weeks" is not the same as "monthly." If you are paid every two weeks, use the following calculation:

- (1) Multiply the amount received every two weeks (before deductions) by 26 (to get a gross annual income)
- (2) Divide that amount by 12 (to get a gross monthly income)
- (3) Type in this amount and select (mn) from the box located below to show the amount typed in is earned monthly.

Gross Monthly Income:

Based on the information you previously entered, these amounts will be calculated and shown for you.

Court-ordered spousal maintenance (paid):

- In the first column, type how much Father pays monthly in court-ordered spousal maintenance (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother pays monthly in court-ordered spousal maintenance (if any)

NOTE: This refers to spousal maintenance from previous relationships as well as spousal maintenance that may already be ordered in the current case.

Court-ordered spousal maintenance (received):

- In the first column, type how much Father receives monthly in court-ordered spousal maintenance (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother receives monthly in court-ordered spousal maintenance (if any)

NOTE: This refers to spousal maintenance from previous relationships as well as spousal maintenance that may already be ordered in the current case.

Other children subject to court orders:

This section refers to minor children from other relationships that live with the party and ARE covered by other court orders (such as parenting time or child support).

- Under “Custodial parent to other child(ren) subject of court order(s)” click the small black down arrow to the right of “0” to select:
 - In the first column, how many of these children Father has
 - In the second column, how many of these children Mother has

- In the first column, type how much Father actually pays monthly in court-ordered current child support for children from other relationships (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother actually pays monthly in court-ordered current child support from other relationships (if any)

Other natural or adopted children

- Click the small black down arrow to the right of “0” to select:
 - In the first column, how many of these children the Father has
 - In the second column, how many of these children the Mother has

Deductions

Leave the next box (Alternate Deduction) in each column blank. On the next lines (Standard Deduction), the website will calculate and show additional changes to each parent’s Gross Monthly Income. These changes reflect each parent’s responsibility to support minor children from other relationships.

Adjusted Gross Monthly Income:

Beneath each column, the website will calculate and show each parent's Adjusted Gross Monthly Income.

Combined Adjusted Gross Monthly Income:

The website will add the parents' Adjusted Gross Monthly Income and show the amount on the line.

Basic Child Support Obligation:

Based on the number of minor children in this case, the website will calculate the parents' Basic Support Obligation based on the parents' combined incomes and outside spousal and child obligations.

ADDITIONS – This section only refers to minor children of this relationship

The next section of the form will adjust the Basic Child Support Obligation by adjusting for the increased costs for teenaged children, children's insurance, childcare, and other extraordinary expenses.

Adjustment for children over the age of 12:

Typically, it costs more to raise teenaged children. Arizona Child Support Guidelines allow for an increase in the Basic Child Support Obligation for each minor child of the relationship who is 12 and older. The website automatically fills this portion out based on the dates of birth typed in for each child at the top of the worksheet.

- The first box shows the number of children age 12 and older.
- The second box shows the maximum percentage that will be added to the Basic Child Support Obligation. Leave the amount at 10%.

The website will calculate and show the adjustment on the line.

Medical, dental, and vision insurance paid: This refers to the insurance premiums paid for only the children's insurance.

If you have combined family coverage, you must find out how much of the premium covers the children's portion of the insurance. If you receive insurance through an employer, the Human Resources department will be able to provide you this information. You can also contact your insurance provider to get the information.

- In the first column, type how much Father pays monthly for the children's medical, dental, and vision insurance (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother pays monthly for the children's medical, dental, and vision insurance (if any)

Monthly childcare costs paid:

If there are younger children of this relationship who attend childcare

- Click the small black down arrow to the right of "0" to select the number of children in childcare
- In the first column, type how much Father pays monthly for childcare (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother pays monthly for childcare (if any)

Less federal tax credit:

Leave the drop down box at "-default-". The website will calculate these amounts automatically based on the parents' gross monthly incomes, the parenting time schedule, and how much each parent pays for insurance and childcare. The lines may remain at "0."

Extra education expenses paid:

This refers to expenses for the children to attend a private or special school and other expenses to meet the child's particular education needs. The parents must agree to these extra expenses.

- In the first column, type how much Father pays monthly for the children's extra education expenses (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother pays monthly for the children's extra education expenses (if any)

Extraordinary child expenses paid:

This refers to expenses for the special needs of gifted or handicapped children.

- In the first column, type how much Father pays monthly for the children's extraordinary expenses (if any)
- In the second column, type how much Mother pays monthly for the children's extraordinary expenses (if any)

CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

Total Child Support Obligation:

This amount will be calculated for you based on the information you previously entered.

Each parent's proportionate percentage of combined income & Each parent's proportionate share of total support obligation

This section of the form shows how much of the total Child Support Obligation each parent is responsible for. The amount is calculated based on each parent's share of the Combined Adjusted Gross Monthly Income. This amount is then decreased by any "Additions" such as medical insurance or childcare costs as provided in the section above. After the decrease (if any) the Preliminary Child Support Obligation amount is provided.

COMPLETING THE REST OF THIS FORM WILL DEPEND ON THE TYPE OF PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE YOU PLAN TO FOLLOW. At the top of the form you either selected "Essentially Equal," "Mostly with Father," "Mostly with Mother," or "Third-Party Caregiver." Each designation effects the total child support obligation.

If you selected "Essentially Equal" parenting time:

- There are no other parts of the form for you to complete. The amounts in this section will be calculated and shown for you based on the information you previously entered.
- If there is a Child Support Obligation to be paid by either parent, it will be shown on the last line of the worksheet.

If you selected "Mostly with Father" parenting time:

- Because the children reside mostly with Father, Mother will receive a child support adjustment for her parenting time. This is done by adding up the total number of days each year that Mother will have parenting time to include holidays and vacations.
- Using the Parenting Plan, count how many parenting time days Mother has in a year.
 - 12 hours or more is counted as one full day
 - 6-11 hours is counted as one half of a day
 - 3-5 hours is counted as a quarter of a day
 - If less than 3 hours, it may count as a quarter of a day if the parent pays for a meal such as lunch or dinner.

- Make sure the first drop-down menu, after Parenting Time Table says “A”
- Enter the number of annual parenting time days in the first box.

The calculator is just a tool and the amount it gives is only a guideline. The amount determined by the calculator for “child support obligation” is at the bottom of the form. You should write this amount in the appropriate sections of your Petition, Response, Motion, or Default Decree. During the hearing, the judge may increase or decrease the calculated child support obligation for either or both parents in order to serve the children’s best interests.
