- Being forbidden to leave your house, or being taken against your will and kept at any other location
- Having someone enter the house against your will, behave in a disorderly manner, and/or damage property
- Conduct that involves disobeying court orders, including interfering with your parenting time

- You DO NOT need to have been seen at a hospital or at a doctor's office.
- The other person DOES NOT need to have been convicted of domestic violence or assault.

You can get an IMMEDIATE Order of Protection to keep him or her away from you and your children by obtaining a Petition for Order of Protection from the clerk of the court on the first floor of the Pima County Superior Court, Rooms 203 and 204. GENERAL INFORMATION & Frequently Asked Questions

This packet will give you an overview of how to properly complete and file the necessary forms to respond to your spouse in a divorce case. While the divorce process may seem overwhelming and intimidating, please know that this packet is written with your needs in mind and is intended to make the process as easy for you as possible.

If you follow the self-help instructions and fill out the forms correctly and completely, then filing a Response will be relatively simple. The forms will walk you through the entire process so that you will be able to move smoothly through every step.

Other important forms and instructions for Family Court cases can be found online at <http://www.sc.pima.gov/Default.aspx?tabid=119>. We recommend that you do not complete all the forms in all the packets right away. If you complete only the forms that you need for the step you are currently working on, the process will be even simpler.

What forms should I receive from the other party?

Summons: This form shows that you have been ordered to appear in court. You "appear" by filing a written Response with the court, making you the Respondent of the case.

Affidavit Regarding Minor Children: This form tells the court that there are no minor children involved in this case.

Petition for Dissolution of Marriage: This form lists your spouse's requests for the court to dissolve the marriage, divide community property, and order spousal maintenance. For more information about these topics, see Packet # 1, Divorce – General Information.

This symbol is a warning. It can mean a few different things:

- The topic can be confusing and you may need to ask a lawyer for help
- You may need to make sure that something is done

Whenever you see this symbol, make sure you read the information carefully and understand it fully.

Read each and every word of the Petition very carefully and decide what you want to do.

What are my options as a Respondent?

- Do Nothing - If you don't respond, your spouse can file an Application and Affidavit for Entry of Default. This may result in a default judgment. It is never a good idea to ignore a court proceeding. The court will decide how to dissolve your marriage without hearing your side of the situation. You will be held accountable for what the court orders regardless of your lack of response.
- File a Written Response - If you do not agree with your spouse's requests in the Petition, and you cannot reach an agreement, you should file a written Response. This is how you request what you want the court to order regarding the divorce, your community property and debts, and any spousal maintenance.

What forms should I complete if I choose to respond?

- Response to Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce) Without Children
- Confidential Sensitive Data Form (if needed)

This packet also includes forms that you should complete if your case involves domestic violence, and you seek protection.

Do not use these forms if the Petitioner already knows your address.

- Request for Protected Address
- Order for a Protected Address

What do I do after I complete the forms?

Step 1: Make 3 copies of the completed forms above.

Step 2: File documents with the court. Take all of the copies to the Clerk of the Court, located on the first floor of the Superior Court Building (110 West Congress, Tucson, AZ 85701. Open 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except legal holidays). Arrive at the courthouse at least one hour before it closes. Tell the clerk that you want to file a response for dissolution. The clerk will take your original forms and one set of copies and will stamp your originals.

How long do I have to respond?

If you are served in the state of Arizona, you have 20 days after service to respond. If served outside of Arizona, you have 30 days after service to respond. If you do not file a written Response on time, you may receive a notice of default. You have 10 days after receiving this notice to file your written Response. If you still do not file a written Response by the end of this grace period, a default judgment can be entered and you will be held accountable for what the court orders.

Do I need to let my spouse know that I responded?

Yes, you must send your spouse a copy of your Response. You should mail the documents to the address your spouse used on the Petition.

Do I need a lawyer's help?

There are times when more complex legal problems will come up, and you may want to get the advice of a lawyer. There are lawyers who will help you help yourself. This means that they will only charge you for giving you the help that you need: you can complete the court forms on your own or ask the lawyer for help.

For more information, call the Law Library and Resource Center at (520) 724-8456.

Where is the Law Library and Resource Center?

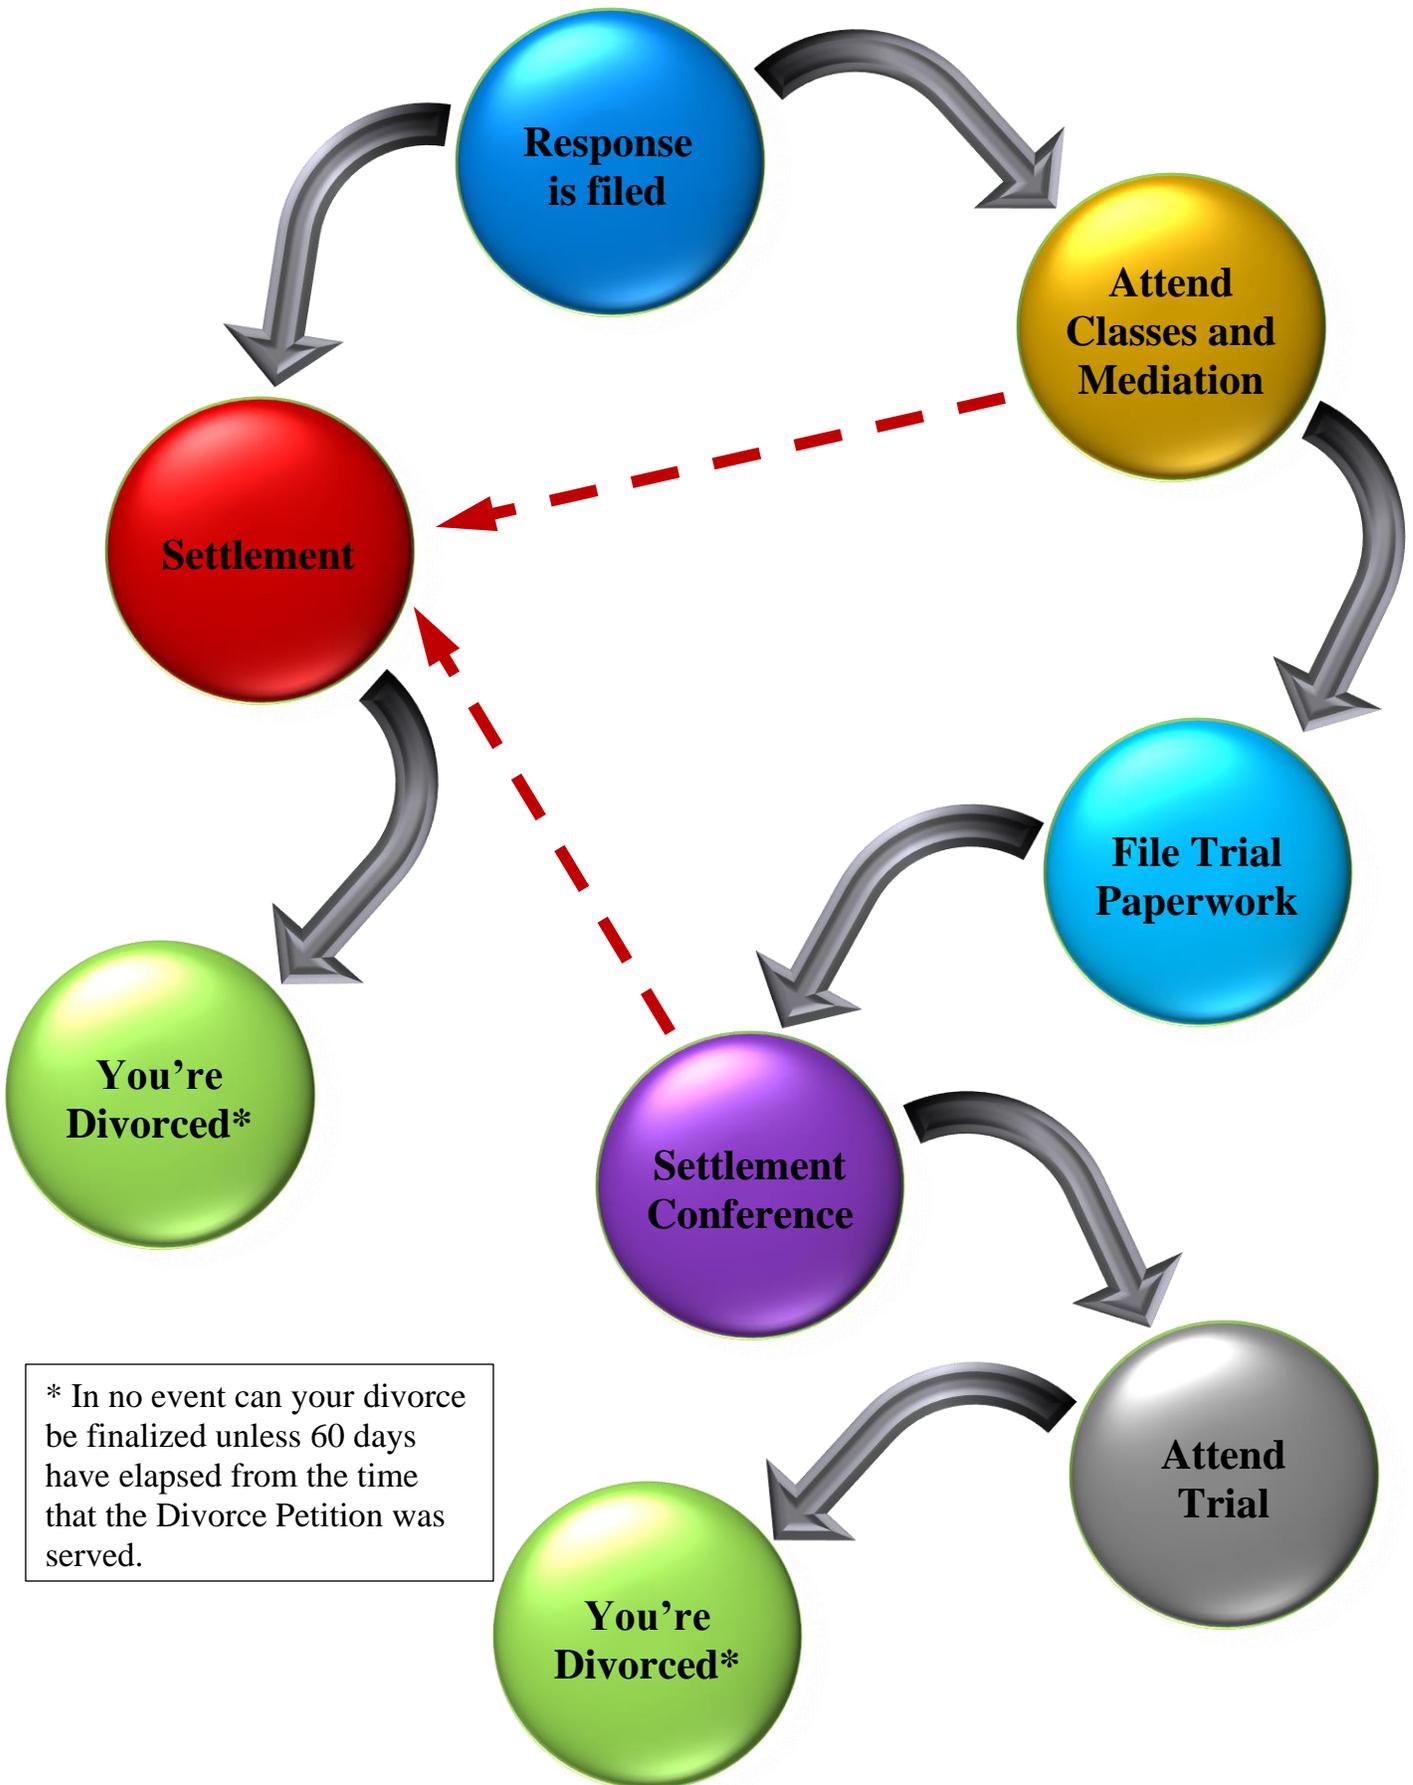

The Law Library and Resource Center is free and located in Room 256, on the second floor of the Pima County Superior Court, 110 West Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona 85701. It is open from 8:30 am to 5 pm Monday through Friday (except holidays). For more information, call (520) 724-8456 or email lawlibrary@sc.pima.gov.

For divorce without children only

This packet has been designed for a divorce that does not involve minor children (under age 18). If you and your spouse have minor children together either by birth or adoption, then STOP: you should be using Packet # 3, Response with Children.

Basic overview of the response process

* In no event can your divorce be finalized unless 60 days have elapsed from the time that the Divorce Petition was served.

What is Community Property?

Community property is any property you and your spouse bought or earned during your marriage. It doesn't matter who uses the property or who actually paid the money. Both you and your spouse have a right to about an equal share of community property.

Community debts belong to both spouses. It doesn't matter who spent the money. Community debts should also be divided in half.

Separate property is property that either spouse owned before the marriage or received during the marriage by gift or inheritance. Separate property is not divided during the divorce.

Separate debts are debts that either spouse had before the marriage or that happened after the Divorce Petition was served.

Community property also applies to pensions, retirement funds, profit sharing and stock plans. Both of you have a right to a portion of these. If these kinds of funds need to be divided, you must fill out a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO). This form is very complicated and difficult to file on your own. It almost always requires the help of a lawyer.

A Temporary Order from the court may be needed to deal with issues relating to finances or property before the divorce is final. You can ask for a Temporary Order at any time during the divorce by filing Packet #13A Temporary Orders.

Property and debt division can be confusing and sometime complicated. If you feel you do not understand your rights about property and debts, it is a good idea to contact a lawyer for help.

Spousal Maintenance (Alimony)

Spousal maintenance, which used to be known as alimony, is money one spouse pays to the other. The payment helps the former spouse who cannot provide for himself or herself without the marriage.

Spousal maintenance is usually only ordered for a specific period of time to help a spouse get back on his or her feet.

Spousal maintenance is paid separately from child support and is not a substitute for or a supplement to child support.

- The Spousal Maintenance Guidelines apply to all divorce cases filed after September 24, 2022. A calculator is now used to calculate the amount of spousal maintenance owed and the amount of time spousal maintenance should be paid under the Guidelines. The Spousal Maintenance Calculator is available here: <https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>

You cannot ask for spousal maintenance after the divorce is over if you did not ask for it during the divorce case

If you or your spouse plans to ask for spousal maintenance, you may want to talk to a lawyer. Spousal maintenance can be very complicated and may have long-term effects.

How much will all this cost?

CURRENT FILING FEES

A list of current filing fees can be found on the Superior Court website here:

<https://www.sc.pima.gov/media/azuphkr/filingfeesdomesticrelations.pdf>

Additionally, the Law Library and Resource Center, located on the 2nd floor in the Superior Court building, can provide a hard copy of the same list.

NOTE: You have to pay fees to file documents for your divorce. If you can't afford the court fees or other costs for a divorce, you may be able to get a deferral or waiver.

HOW TO GET A DEFERRAL OR WAIVER

You can apply for a full waiver or deferral of the fees if you cannot pay.

- A deferral means that you do not have to pay any fees at the beginning of your case, but you will be expected to pay on a predetermined schedule.
- A waiver means that you do not have to pay the fees at all.
- Not everybody who requests a deferral or waiver receives one.
- You file for a deferral or waiver at the same time you file your petition or response.

For more information see Packet #12 Deferral/Waiver of Fees & Costs

Volunteer Lawyers Program Domestic Relations Clinic

Pima County Superior Court has a program through which free assistance is given to people representing themselves in a family law matter, including anyone filing a Response in a divorce or paternity case.

At the clinic, someone will review your Decrees, Child Support Orders, and Income Withholding Orders to help ensure these documents are complete and legally correct.

Making use of the Clinic is in your best interest. The judicial officer will not sign any documents that are incorrect or incomplete. In such cases, you will have to leave, correct your documents and then schedule another hearing.

To schedule an appointment call the Law Library and Resource Center at 520-724-8456, or go in person to the library on the second floor of the Pima County Superior Court.

There are lawyers who will help you help yourself

This means that they will only charge for the help you need, and you can complete the court papers on your own.

Court cases can be quite complicated, and talking to a lawyer can help you avoid serious mistakes and save you time, money and trips to the court.

Read this before you complete any forms in your packet

Sensitive data, or sensitive information, is information that you might not want other people to see. Sensitive data includes your social security number, bank account number, credit card number, and other financial account numbers.

Court documents, for the most part, can be seen by anyone. If you need to include any of the information listed above, you should write “SEE CONFIDENTIAL SENSITIVE DATA FORM” on the document. Then you need to complete the Confidential Sensitive Data Form. This is where you will include the actual sensitive information.

This is important because the “Confidential Sensitive Data Form” will not be seen by the public.

If you ever need to give the court new information, then you should file an updated Confidential Sensitive Data Form. Include all other sensitive data forms that you have already given the court, plus any new sensitive information that you need to tell the court.

If you include “sensitive data” in documents filed with the court, other than on a Confidential Sensitive Data Form, you do so at your own risk.

See Instructions on Completing the Sensitive Data Form near the end of this packet.

- Petitioner – Enter your spouse’s name as the Petitioner’s name.

STATEMENTS MADE TO THE COURT UNDER OATH

Questions 1 - 4

1. About My Spouse, the Petitioner

- Fill in your spouse’s name, address, date of birth, work information, and the length of time your spouse has lived in Arizona.

2. About Me, the Respondent

- Fill in your name, address, date of birth, occupation, and the length of time you have lived in Arizona.

3. About Our Marriage Write the:

- Fill in the date you were married and city and state where you were married.
- If you were married outside the United States, list the country where you were married.

4. 90-Day Requirement

- Check the box that tells the court that you OR your spouse has lived in Arizona, or that at least one of you has been stationed in Arizona while in the Armed Forces, for at least 90 days.

PLEASE NOTE: If you or your spouse has not lived in Arizona for at least 90 days, then you cannot file for a divorce in Arizona.

PROPERTY AND DEBTS (see definitions on page 8 of this packet) Questions 5 – 9

5. Community Property

- If you DO NOT have any community property, mark the first box and go to #6. In Arizona, all marital property is assumed to be community property, so this situation is unlikely.
- If you DO have community property, mark the second box.

Description, Value, and Division of Community Property

- The court will try to give both spouses about the same amount of property, unless there are good reasons not to. Remember, community property is any property you or your spouse bought or earned during the marriage. It does not matter who uses it or who bought it. You both have a right to an equal share.
- If you have already split the property, check both Petitioner and Respondent under "Award to Petitioner/Respondent property in that party's possession." If you don't list the property, you can move to #6.
- If you did not already split the property, list each item, about how much it is worth, and who should get it. If you want something, you have to request it now. Use details like brand names and models.

Real property:

- Write the complete address of the property. Include the legal description of the property, such as "LOT 77, PINE TREE ACRES, according to Book 111 of Maps, etc." You can find a legal description on your deed papers.
- Check who should get the real property. You can ask the court to order it to be sold, with the profit divided between the spouses.
- Cemetery plots are considered real property.
- Mobile homes are considered real property only when the mobile home is permanently attached to land and you own that land. If the mobile home is not attached to land you own, it is considered a vehicle.

Household furniture and appliances:

- List furniture and large appliances (sofas, beds, tables, refrigerators, etc.) and their estimated values on the lines.
- For each item, check the box for the party who you want to keep that property. If you need to include additional items, write them in the "Other Items" section.

Household furnishings:

- List household items (other than furniture and large appliances, such as dishes, small appliances, rugs, etc.) and their estimated values on the lines.
- For each item, check the box for the party who you want to keep that property. If you need to include additional items, write them in the “Other Items” section.

Other items:

- Enter anything not already listed and its estimated value on the lines. Check who should receive it.

Pension/retirement fund/IRA/profit sharing/stock plan/401K:

- Each spouse usually has rights of up to half of any spouse’s plan. How much depends on how long you were married and how long the pension or retirement plan was in effect. If you have been together the whole period of the plan, you could receive up to half of the plan.
- Mark this box if you want the court to divide either your or your spouse’s retirement or profit sharing/retirement/401K plan and check who should receive what.

NOTE: If you mark this box, you should see a lawyer about a document called a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO). A QDRO is a highly specialized legal document that requires a lawyer’s assistance to prepare. If you are not sure whether you or your spouse has a retirement plan, consult a lawyer.

Motor Vehicles:

- List the vehicle identification number (VIN), the year, make and model.
- List any lien holders who are on the title (usually the finance company who loaned you the money to buy the vehicle).
- Remember, mobile homes NOT permanently attached to land that you own are considered vehicles.
- Check who should receive the motor vehicle(s).
- The form has space for three separate vehicles. If you need to include information for additional vehicles, attach a separate piece of paper.

6. SEPARATE PROPERTY

- If neither spouse has any property from before the marriage, and neither spouse received any gifts or inheritances during the marriage, mark the first box and go to #7.
- If you do have property from before the marriage or if you or your spouse received any gifts or inheritances during the marriage, mark the second box and list each item and who should get each item.
- Property that you or your spouse brought into the marriage, bought or earned after service of the Petition for Dissolution is also separate property.

7. COMMUNITY DEBTS

- If neither you nor your spouse owes money or has any debts from the marriage, mark the first box and go to #8. In Arizona, all marital debt is assumed to be community debt, so this situation is unlikely.
- If you did acquire some debts, mark the second box. Remember, community debts are any debts you or your spouse created during the marriage. It does not matter who created the debt. You both have an equal responsibility for the debt. If you get the property that money is owed on, you probably will also be given that debt.
- Tell the court what the debts are and who should pay them. Enter enough information to be clear about each specific debt, and decide what is a fair split. It is unusual for the court to order one person to pay all the debts.

Keep in mind that the Divorce Decree will order the debts to be split, but if your spouse doesn't pay a court-awarded debt, the creditor could come after you. You would then have to take your spouse back to court to enforce the Decree.

8. SEPARATE DEBTS

- If neither you nor your spouse has separate debts from before you were married (or any debts incurred since you were served with the Petition for Dissolution), mark the first box and go on to #9.
- If you do have separate debts, mark the second box, and list the debts clearly and in detail, and check which of you will pay them.

9. Summary of What I Ask for on Property and Debts that is Different from What My Spouse Asked for in the Petition

- Describe what is different between how your spouse asked the property and debts to be divided and what you think is a fair split of property and debts.
- If there is no difference, leave this section blank and go to #10.

10. Tax Returns

- Read the text following the first box. This paragraph means that, once the court signs the Decree for Dissolution of Marriage, the two of you will file separate income tax returns. Each party will also give the other party all documents necessary to do so. Check this box if this is how you want to handle income tax refunds.

- Check the “Other” box if you want a different arrangement. Describe the tax arrangement you want on the lines.

11. Spousal Maintenance (Alimony) See basic information on page 9 of this packet.

- If you think that neither spouse should receive spousal maintenance, mark the first box and go to #12.
- If you think “Petitioner” or “Respondent” should receive spousal maintenance. Check all boxes that apply to the person that you checked should receive spousal maintenance.

12. Summary of What I Ask for Regarding Spousal Maintenance that is Different from What My Spouse Asked for in the Petition

- Describe what is different between how your spouse asked for and spousal maintenance to be addressed and what you think is fair. If there is no difference, leave this section blank and go to #13.

13. Minor Children

- Check to confirm that you and your spouse have no minor children together, adopted or biological, and that the wife is not pregnant.
- If this statement is NOT true, STOP.

You must use Packet # 3, Divorce with Children – Response.

14. General Denial

- This statement says that you deny anything your spouse wrote in the Petition that you did not specifically admit, qualify or deny in this form.

OTHER STATEMENTS MADE TO THE COURT UNDER OATH

- Check any statements you believe are true. If any of these statements are NOT true, you cannot file for a divorce until they are true.
- At least one of the spouses must believe the marriage is “irretrievably broken,” which means there is no way the marriage can be saved and no way you will get back together.

If you believe there is a chance that you and your spouse can get back together, please see Packet #16, Conciliation to request free marriage counseling through the Conciliation Court.

REQUESTS I MAKE TO THE COURT

Here you will state what you want the court to order in the final Decree. Be sure to mark these items consistently with what you marked above.

1. Dissolution (Divorce)

Check if you want: (check only one)

- A divorce and to be single.
- The court to dismiss this case because neither you nor your spouse had lived in Arizona for 90 days prior to your spouse filing the Petition.
- The court to dismiss this case because the marriage is not irretrievably broken or you are currently in Conciliation Court.

Do not check the last box because there are no children (biological or adopted) common to you and your spouse, so there are no issues of legal decision-making, parenting time, or child support.

2. Spousal Maintenance (Alimony) Check if you think:

- If neither party is requesting spousal maintenance, mark the first box and go to #4 Community Debts.
- If you are asking the court to order one spouse to pay spousal maintenance to the other spouse, then check which party should pay spousal maintenance to the other and then complete sections a, b, and c regarding the (a) amount of spousal maintenance to be paid, (b) how long spousal maintenance will be paid, and (c) the required spousal maintenance worksheet.

3. Community Property

- This section asks the court to split the property fairly as you requested above.

4. Community Debts

- This section asks the court to split the debts fairly as you requested above.
- If you or your spouse has additional debts since you separated, and you want those debts to be considered as separate property, write in the date of separation. The court may use the date of service of the Petition to determine the date that community debts ceased.

5. Separate Property

- This section asks the court to allow each of you to keep your separate property.

6. Separate Debts

- This asks the court to make each of you responsible for debts that you indicated you had before the marriage.

7. Names

Check:

- “Petitioner” if your spouse wants his or her name restored to what it was before the marriage.
You cannot put this in the decree for your spouse unless your spouse asks for it in writing (such as in the Petition).
- “Respondent” if you want your name restored to what it was before the marriage.
- Write the restored name on the line.

8. Other Orders That I Am Requesting

- In this section you may ask the court to order anything you haven’t mentioned in earlier sections. If none, write "None."

OATH AND VERIFICATION

- DO NOT SIGN the form except in front of a notary. When you file the papers with the court, sign the form in front of the clerk. The clerk will notarize your signature for free. You must bring a valid, government-issued picture ID (such as a driver’s license) so the clerk knows whose signature is being verified.
- You can write your name on the first line and check “Respondent” beneath the second line, but do not sign.
